JUNMAI

Junmai refers to pure sake, pure in the sense that no adjuncts starches or sugars other than rice added to the fermenting mixture were used, and that no brewer's alcohol was added either. Made with nothing but rice, water and kojii mold. Junmai-shu is made with rice that has been polished (milled) so that at least 30% of the outer portion of each rice grain has been ground away. Usually a bit fuller than other types often with a good acidity.

JOZEN MIZUNO GOTOSHI "SPARKLING" (360ML)

JUNMAI – GINJO

This is pure rice sake made with rice which has been refined to 60% or less of its original size. Brewed with labor intensive steps, eschewing machinery, and fermented at colder temperatures for longer periods. Junmai ginjos are elegant and refined but still have some of the richer qualities found in junmai.

DAIGINJO

This sake is brewed using rice with a seimaibuai of at least 50%, but during the brewing process, a small amount of pure distilled alcohol is added. The brewing process for daiginjo sake is more labor intensive than other types, with traditional tools and precise methods being used in conjunction with a long, cold fermentation period. Very much “hands-on” brewing.

UMESHU

Umeshu is a traditional Japanese liqueur made from ume fruit. A perfect balance between ume extract and alcohol is achieved by aging the whole fruit, with the stone still inside. The delicious tang of Umeshu comes from citric acid in the fruit, and the refreshing flavor stimulates the appetite.

BUBBLES

10188	2012	Dom Pérignon, Champagne, France  Very pale, very youthful nose. Lots of zest and freshness. Introvert and tight, but approachable in terms of texture.
10081	NV	Laurent Perrier "Rosé", Champagne, France  Cherry and earth notes matched to a firm, muscular structure. It has warmth and personality, with a lingering finish.
10163	NV	Duval Leroy, "Champagne de Femme" Champagne, France  Rich and ripe, this bubbly has a super fine mousse, buoying its candied citrus, ginger and herb notes. Balanced and bright, with a mouthwatering finish.
10062	NV	Fleury, "Rosé" Reims, Champagne, France  An aromatic bubbly, with floral and spice notes mixing with flavors of bread dough, dried apricot, lemon confit, and pastry cream. Shows clean cut, with a fine bead and a fresh, smoky, mineral-tinged finish.
10044	NV	Moët &amp; Chandon "Brut Imperial" Champagne, France  Very appealing flowery edge to the ginger and citrus flavors. Well-delineated and harmonious with a nutty accent.
10046	NV	Ruinart Brut, Champagne, France  Very appealing toasty edge to the ginger and citrus flavors. Well-delineated and harmonious with a nutty accent.
10150	NV	Veuve Clicquot "Yellow Label", Champagne, France (375ml)  Lacy in texture and elegant, framed by delicate acidity that focuses the subtle flavors of toasty, buttery and graphite-tinged mineral, with hints of mint, ground anise and walnut.

RED WINES

40087 2016 Paringa Estate Pinot Noir, Victoria, Australia

Robust, full-bodied and yet still elegant and fresh like most wines from Burgundy, this very masculine wine is perfumed with scents of cherry, strawberry and blackcurrant. As it matures, it will develop notes of leather, truffle, fur, game and macerated fruits.

40920 2020 Kanonkop, Pinotage, Stellenbosch, South Africa, 2020

Firm in texture, with a surprising grip of tannins holding the dark, spicy flavors. This becomes more focused on spice than blueberry and licorice as the finish lingers.

40894 2020 Pinot Noir, Hamilton Russell Vineyards, Walker Bay, South Africa

Displays layers of dark cherry, berry and wood spice. A silky tannin structure compliments the spicy primary fruit perfume.

40801 2009 Chapelle de Potensac, Medoc, Bordeaux, France

Pure and refined fruit – combines a crunchy fresh style with riper, more cooked elements. Light on the palate, and finishes without incident, but this has a good honesty about it, and is a very pleasant drink.

40791 2016 Vietti Tre Vigne Barbera D'Asti Piemonte, Italy

Soft tannins and lively fruit make a charming wine for early, well with fish as well as meat dishes.

40815 2010 Château Malartic Lagraviere, Pessac-Leognan, Bordeaux, France

Full bodied wine with silky tannins and refreshing notes of blackcurrant, hints of sweet spices and a touch pepper.

RED WINES

		Pinot Noir, Cloudy Bay, Marlborough, New Zealand
40908	2020	This is a very expressive, stylish wine. Firm and dense, this red offers expressive cherry, currant and light earth notes.
		Carbernet Sauvignon, De Toren Fusion "V" Western Cape, SA
40968	2019	This thick-skinned, late-ripening variety performs best in the warm, mostly black currant nose (with touch of violet) and palate with some savory spice olive bay leaves—medium length finish.

ROSÉ WINES

30051	2021	Château Les Valentines, Côtes de Provence, France
		This has a ripe edge, with a mix of white cherry and white raspberry notes. Stay rounded and inviting through the finish.
30090	2021	Château "Leoube Secrets" Côtes de Provence, France
		Minerality and red fruitiness drive this textured wine. A blend of Grenache, Cinsault and Cabernet Sauvignon.

SWEET WINES

20719	2020	Fontanafredda, "Moncunco" Moscato D'Asti , Piedmont, Italy
		Exotic fragrances of rose petals, musk and spicy Turkish delight. Lightly sweet, delicately fizzy with a bright acidity and full of the fresh flavors of
